SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 3.

Legislative Summary. In the Senate, in the morning, Mr. Hall, from the committee on Ways and Means, reported favorably on the bill to exempt the Lodges and Halls of Masons, Odd-Fellows and Sons of Temperance from taxation, and recommended a bill in lieu, providing that this exemption shall affect only such property as is owned by the different orders mentioned. Mr. Whitthorne offered an amendment providing that the exemption shall only affect buildings and lots exclusively used by the members of these societies. A discussion arose upon this amendment, Messrs, Stokes, Rodgers, Hall, Caldwell, opposing it, and Messrs. Whitthorne, Ballew, Atkins, Havron, advocating it. The debate took something of an outside range, Mr. Atkins, in his remarks, taking the ground that the Order of Sons of Temperance was not strictly a moral organization, but had meddled, and was meddling with politics-that they had employed an orator to traverse the State, and make speeches, vindicating one of the candidates for Governor against the other. Mr. Caldwell corrected the gentleman from Henry (Mr. Atkins) in this assertion, and defended the Order of Sons of Temperance. He stated what we have always understood to be the fact, that P. S. White was employed by a committee appointed by the State Temperauce Convention, a body which had no connection with the Sons of Temperance organization .-After a protracted discussion, the amendment of Mr. Whitthorne was adopted, and the bill rejected, ayes 4, noes 21.

town Bank was rejected on its second reading by the decisive vote of 19 to 3. This may be taken as an indication of the sentiment of the Senate in regard to granting further charters to stock banking companies. They have set measures. The special order, the bill to change its fatality was very great." ed the Senate at some length in its support. The Senator from Wilson and DeKalb handled the subject ably and in a particularly plair, straightforward and pungent manner. He showed most conclusively the propriety and justice and necessity of the bill. Mr. Sheid spoke briefly in reply. Mr. Carter introduced an amendment providing that the Superintendent of the Lunatic Asylum shall be elected by the Legislature. The discussion continned, Mr. Ballew speaking at some length in opposition to the bill, and in advocacy of Andrew Johnson and democracy, and the Senate adjourned to 7 P. M., on a strict party votr, the minority voting in a body to adjourn to 10

In the House, in the morning, bills were presented, by Mr. Algee, to prevent debters from defrauding creditors; by Mr. Galbreath, to compel the attendance of witnesses in criminal cases; and by Mr. Bartlett, to amend the proceedings in the collection of debts. Several local bills were also presented. The bill for the benefit of the Tennessee, Western and Charleston Railroad Company, after a lengthy debate, was rejected.

In the afternoon, the House acted upon bills on second reading, and the nominations by the Governor of Directors for the Bank of Tennessee were confirmed.

silly article from the Central Democrat, asking if the State Council of the American party meets, and if so, why has the public not been informed of it, and their proceedings. We are not surprised at the Central Democrat making such ridiculous enquiries, and did not notice them when they appeared. But the Union reproduces them, (knowing full well that the proceedings of the State Council were published in fall in the city papers, signed by the President,) with the evident purpose of making the impression on those of its readers, who never read the other Nashville papers, that the proceedings were suppressed. And thus that paper leads its readers into one error after another, to prejudice a political opponent, taking care to sappress the truth, whenever possible until many of them, we have no doubt, actually believe what their newspaper teaches, by direction and indirection, that the American party is a mass of corruption, and the leading spirits in it, comprising really a majority of the best men in the country, and especially in Tennessee, are midnight murderers, thieves and ANOTHER FREE BANK .- We saw yesterday a couple of notes of the "Merchants' Bank, Nashville, W. B. SHAPARD, President, and JNO. POTERFIELD, Cashier. They are decidedly handsome specimens of Bank Notes, and will "go like hot cakes." The exchange office of W. B. ADVANCE IN FREIGHTS .- We I sarn from the Chattanooga Advertiser, that the Western and Atlantic Railroad Company have advanced the rates of freight on wheat and corn on former prices. Heretofore the bulk of the shipments from Tennessee have taken that route, but if this advance should prove material, it will change to a great extent the course of trade to the Cumberland river. CEALED Proposals will be received at the office of the Delgefield and Kentucky Raffrood Company in Nashville, Tenn., until Naturday, December 15th, 1850, for the construction of the Yead from Nashville to the Kentucky Line, where it meets the Henderson and Nashville Railroad to Henderson on the Ohio River. The E. & K. R. is about forty-eight miles long, through a country well adapted for Railroad construction, and the work will be divided into sections of about one mile each, which may be hid for separately, or the whole road inclinded in one proposition. Proposals may also be made to build the thirty miles only next to Nashville, either by the single section or in one contract. There are on the road one buonel half a mile long, heavy pock work at various points, and two large Bridges. Mars, Profites and Plans will be ready for examination by Dec. 1st, and any information may be obtained by addressing the undersigned.

FARMERS AND STOCK RAISERS, Loffer you a Corn and Cob Mill unsurpassed in the Un ion, and which cannot be superceded by past or future in-ventions. It is the very Mill which every Farmer and Stock Rai-er should have; it will crush from 8 to 10 bushels Corn and Cob per hour, with one horse; is easily fitted up and managed; weighe $10 ibs., and as all contact of the grinding surfaces is prevented, will last any farmer an ordinary life-time. I speak thus of its durability, because the some principle has been fairly lested in the old Bark Mill. Who

SCOTT'S LITTLE GIANT CORN AND COBB MILL

THERE are features connected with this mill worthy of L consideration and close examination on the part of those wishing to purchase a Feed Mill. Its mechanical construction and adaptation to the pur-poses designed, to crush and grand ear corn. Its great capacity while doing an immense work with extraordinary case, its durability is amply provided for. The complete and entire portableness of the Little Giant, rendering its greater convenience for plantation and farm use imposside. It requires no mechanical aid or bill of expense to put it up; any farm band or servant can put up and set or e running in half an hours time. The convenience with which the sweep may be applied to our horizontal-as is most sual-or over head, and the mill may be easily attached where steam or water is used. The power it takes, requirin one and two horses. The quantity and quality of product 0 to 30 bushels of good feed meal per hour, according to the degree of fineness ground, and the size mill. It is the cheapest mill, all things considered, there is before the pub-Another thing connected with the Little Giant, as a pa ent, and worthy of note is the f ct that there has been no Patent Right speculating or huckstering about the country, as is usual with the thousand bungling make-shift implements that are got up us a trade-merely to get money by selling or palming off the patent right upon the credulous-then the machine to be abandoned by all parties as a humbug, on the other hand the Parantee and Proprietors of the Little Giant Mills, believing that they can—and determined that they will supply the Agriculturalists and Stock raisers of our country with a superior Mill, are permanently engaged in the business, and have over one hundred thousand dollars invested in the manufacture of these mills, in the East, West and South, some of these establishments en ploying 60 men solely in this business. So highly are these mile appreciated, that is or thousand have teen sold within the past eighteen months, and the beaviest and the rost extensive Manufacturers of Agricultural implemen s in the United States have eagerly sought an interest in their manu facture and sale. No implement has been more thoroughly tested; no one he kind has received so numerous and high testie from M-chanics' Institutes and Agricultural Associations, and sone, by cason of substantial, practical utility and merit have more fairly ground their way into every days use and popular favor than Scott's Little Giant Corn and Cosh Mil.
